

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION IHRDC

IHRDC was founded in 1969 with a commitment to offer international oil and gas companies with excellent products and services to train and develop their workforce. In the almost six decades since then – from both our Boston headquarters and our offices in London, Amsterdam, Abu Dhabi, Kuala Lumpur, and Lagos – we have set a worldwide standard of excellence through our Instructional Programs, e-Learning and Knowledge Solutions, and Competency Management. Blending solutions across its three core business lines to create a hybrid approach to learning and development for our clients, IHRDC's offerings are used daily by thousands of industry leaders.

Instructional Programs

Excellent Instructors, Challenging Simulation Games, Exceptional Experience

IHRDC's highly interactive instructional programs are designed specifically for the energy sector. Each year, we run a wide range of public and private workshops throughout the world. Throughout the years, IHRDC has delivered highly acclaimed, instructional programs for energy professionals, in both live and virtual formats, by combining our strong faculty with blended learning resources. Programs are designed around Adult Learning Principles to be engaging, enjoyable, competency-focused and, most of all, allow learning to be internalized at the highest level.

e-Learning Solutions

Inspired, Innovative, Instructional

Our comprehensive e-Learning Solutions offerings bring you innovative on-demand solutions to effectively solve your skills training needs. These comprehensive products cover industry-specific content and business essentials in all key aspects of the international oil and gas industry. IHRDC has been the energy industry's go-to training leader. We are a proven advocate for our clients, and we remain committed to designing, producing, and publishing enhanced solutions and new programs to meet the industry's evolving needs.

Competency Management

Drive Your Talent Strategy with Our Competency Expertise

IHRDC has a broad and diverse range of practical expertise implementing our Competency Management System for different types and sizes of energy companies across the globe. We offer a complete learning solution, from assessment and assurance through blended development opportunities that drive talent management strategy. Through partnering with our clients using our team of specialists, a comprehensive database of competency models, and our industry-leading competency management software, CMS Online, we've provided competency assessment services to the oil, gas, and power industries.
